

Dear Friends and Family of ELHSDA,

This past month has been a busy one, and with the holiday season upon us, the drama season doesn't stop! We had a successful turnout for Cinderella, our fall musical, and now we are onto our straight show. The straight show this year is called Nooses Off! by Don Zolidis, and it is directed by seniors Olivia DuBois and Sophie Wood. The show will take place February 8-10 at Auburn Middle School. We are also moving on to our One Act which will be directed by Ms. Deborah Bishop. This year's one act will be Pat Cook's How Does A Thing Like That Get Started? Auditions will be held Wednesday, December 12, after school in the choir room. Finally, our drama association is looking into going back to the Maine Thespian Conference this year. This will be January 11th and 12th but students, if they are interested in going, are not required to go both days. Please see Ms. Bishop for more information on this. This year the conference is also putting on a production of Almost. Maine by John Carani. EL students will be performing the short section "Sad, Glad" in the show. Our next big date will be concessions for the Thursday showing of "Lend Me A Tenor" at L/A Community Little Theatre on January 17th. Thank you for your continued support and have a happy holiday!
