

Dear Friends and Family of ELHSDA,

We hope you had a very happy holiday season filled with joy and happiness! With this new year, we are getting ready for the busiest time for the club. The new year brings us the One Act, "How Does A Thing Like That Get Started?" by Pat Cook, which was just cast, the straight show, "Nooses Off" by Don Zolidis, which has been in the works for the past month, the children show in May and the senior show in May as well. Our drama association will also be attending the Maine Thespian Conference on January 11-12th, and some of our members, Autumn Chapman, Aaron Hart, and Aisha Kagoni, will be participating in "Almost Maine" by John Carani at the Thespian Conference. In addition to the Thespian Conference, January brings us the concessions for the Thursday showing of "Lend Me A Tenor" at L/A Community Little Theatre on January 17th. Thank you for your continued support and we look forward to the new year!
